

Dr Shailendra Kumar Joshi is a multi disciplinary professional having diverse experiences at the state, national and international levels. He was involved in implementation of several infrastructure projects, and developmental activities in India. He is one of the leading experts on environment and water resources in India.

Shailendra had participated and represented India in a number of international environment and sustainable development negotiations. He is an alumnus of the two prestigious Indian Institute of Technologies namely, IIT, Roorkee (Bachelor of Engineering) and IIT, Delhi (Master of Technology). He holds a Doctoral degree in the field of public policy from the TERI School of Advanced Studies.

Shailendra is one of the first Indian LEAD fellows (Leadership for Environment and Development International), London. He is also a fellow of institution of Engineers of India.

He belongs to IAS: 1984 and has worked on various assignments in the states of Andhra Pradesh and Telangana, and Government of India. After serving for two years as the Chief Secretary to Government of Telangana, Dr. Joshi superannuated from IAS on 31st Dec 2019. Subsequently, Shailendra has been appointed as the Adviser to the Government of Telangana and adjutant professor in IIT Roorkee. He is also associated with a number of socio-economic activities. He has written three books and numerous articles. “Echo T calling -Towards People Centric Governance” (English), “एक प्रतिध्वनि - जन केंद्रित शासन की ओर” had been translated in other Indian languages. His other book is on the “Management of Transboundary water Resources-challenges to solutions”.